

NATIONAL SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY

WHAT IS FAMILY WATCHDOG?

Family Watchdog is a company driven to provide awareness to people when they need it most. We are the world's leading reference for Registered Sex Offenders. We do not just stop there - we also send out monthly newsletters packed with safety information as well as the occasional article.

Join our site today to receive free notifications for when a registered offender moves in/out of your notification area. You can set your notification area as your home, child's daycare or school or even as a place of employment for yourself.

People want the information we offer! Key to its success, Family Watchdog uses easy-to-use web technology to help people achieve security through awareness, education and community. Family Watchdog offers tools that enable users to proactively inform, educate and protect themselves, their families and their community.

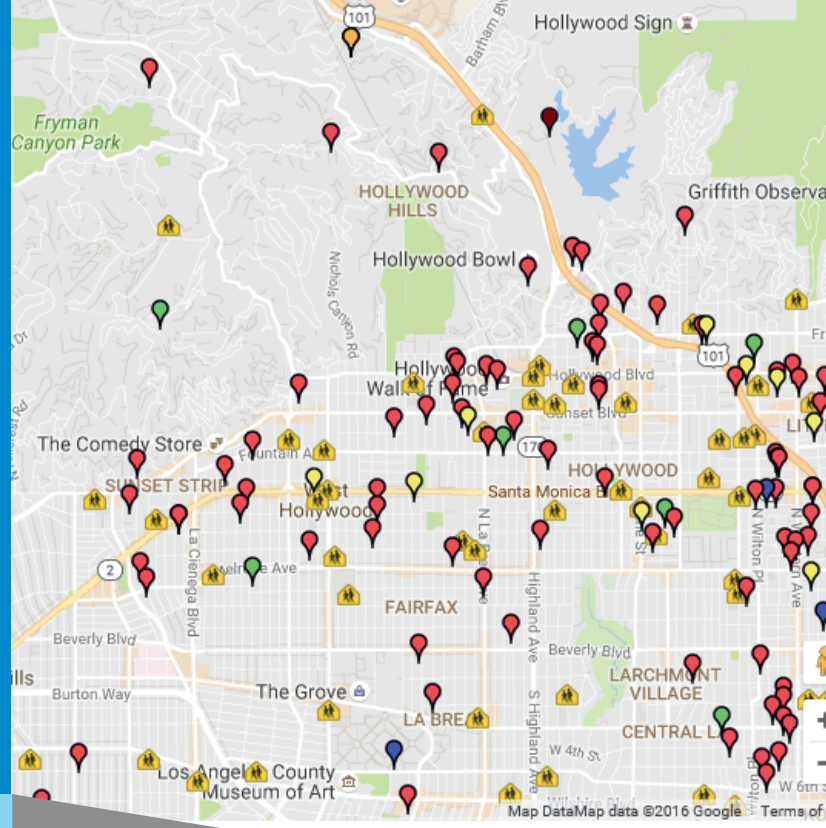

WHO USES FAMILY WATCHDOG?

Family Watchdog is regularly featured on TV and radio shows such as John Walsh, Dr. Phil, Bill O'Reilly, CBS News, NBC News, Fox News and countless others. Which helps us reach thousands of visitors a month!

Other users and supporters include parents, educators, public safety personnel, PTAs, community groups and volunteer programs. The list goes on and on!

Endorsed by people from all walks of life including law enforcement and government officials, educators, child safety advocates and celebrities alike, Family Watchdog promotes family safety and crime prevention. Our supporters and service garners a high-level of confidence and credibility with our visitors. Associating with Family Watchdog provides strong brand recognition to household and family decision makers concerned with ever increasing threats facing their families and communities.
